

We need relief from the invasion of privacy by these computerized telemarketers... why is there even a debate about it? I pay for my phone, not THEM. They use it to enter my home, find out WHEN I am home with their calls where no one answers - I get 4-5 of these calls a day. My answering machine is full of their unwanted solicitations!!! ENOUGH!!!!

Sincerely,
Eileen Page